Tommy A. Moore, Jr. Elected to Goodwill Industries International Board of Directors

HOUSTON — Tommy A. Moore, Jr., Chairman, President and CEO of First Investors Financial Services Group, Inc., is one of four private sector businessmen nationwide recently elected to the board of Goodwill Industries International (GII). Moore also serves as Treasurer/Vice Chair of the Board of Goodwill Industries of Houston.

“Tommy has and continues to serve Goodwill Houston and his appointment to the GII board reflects Goodwill’s commitment to be led by the best,” says Steven P. Lufburrow, President and CEO. “We’re grateful for his talent and proud to share his expertise with Goodwill on an international level.”

With a network of 183 independent, community-based organizations in the U.S., Canada, and 14 other countries, GII provides job training and employment services, job placement opportunities and post-employment support.

Moore co-founded First Investors, one of the most successful and longest running companies in the auto finance industry, in 1989 after spending 10 years in commercial banking. He also serves as a Director of Reverse Mortgage Solutions Inc, one of the largest reverse mortgage servicing companies in the U.S. as well as a Director and Executive Committee Member for The National Automotive Finance Association, a non-profit industry trade group.

Through its Job Connection Centers, Academy for Career Development, Homeless Veterans Reintegration Program, Goodwill Temporary Services and Charles R. Swain Memorial Contracts Center, Goodwill Houston creates job opportunities for people with disabilities and other barriers to employment. With a vision of being the premier workforce development resource in greater Houston, based on the excellence of its people and its career services, Goodwill Houston aims to increase its impact in the community by 50 percent, having added 27 new retail stores by the end of 2013.
